

SUMMER IS HERE!

Tuesday evening adult programs start June 21st

Rangeley Public Library

June 2016 NEWSLETTER

Dear Patron,

The official start to the library's summer season has arrived with the annual Pie, Prose, & Plant Sale. The library was bustling with activity on Saturday as people shopped for their favorite books, pies, and plants.

There were so many wonderful choices in each category that people had a difficult time choosing. However, I saw many happy customers walking out of the library doors with their purchases. The library would like to thank all of the people who helped out by donating plants and books or baking pies and other goodies. And thank you to our many customers who took a few minutes out of their Memorial weekend to support the library. This place is the wonderful place that it is because so many people come together to support it.

See you at the library!

Janet Wilson, Director
