

Summer Fades to Fall

Rangeley Public Library

September 2016 NEWSLETTER

Dear Patron,

The Rangeley Public Library is about to get more graphic. We have been building a graphic novel section for kids for several years now, but we are finally ready to take the plunge into adult graphic novels. We plan to purchase a couple of adult graphic novels each month for the next few months, starting in September with Dark Night: A True Batman Story by Paul Dini and Star Wars: Vader Down by Jason Aaron. If we have a good response to this genre, we will give graphic novels a regular place in the adult section of the the library. So, if you are a graphic novel fan and would like to see this collection grow, you can "vote" for more graphic novels by stopping by the library and checking them out.

P.S. I have a new email address. From now on, if you want to send me an email, please use director@rangeleylibrary.org
