

RANGELEY PUBLIC LIBRARY

January 2020 Newsletter

Dear Scott,

January is here, and that means that the dark gloom of December is behind us, and we will soon start noticing a lengthening of our daylight hours. Woohoo! Don't you love the clean white of a January day with its crystal clear blue skies?! No wonder January is the time of fresh starts.

Speaking of fresh starts, have you made any New Year's resolutions? If you promised yourself that you will do lots of new things, then you also need to plan NOT to do lots of old things. There are still only 24 hours in a day. Did you promise yourself more time to read good books? Then maybe you will need to plan for less time on social media. Did you plan to spend more time in the beautiful outdoors? Then maybe you will need to combine your out-of-town errands so you can take fewer trips down the mountain. If your New Year's resolutions are going to become reality, not just good intentions, then you need to make a plan to succeed. Whatever you plan, make sure that you include Rangeley Public Library in your weekly schedule. We miss you when you are not here!
