

RANGELEY PUBLIC LIBRARY

March 2020 Newsletter

Dear Scott,

Welcome to yo-yo season. One day you're up; the next day you're down. Within the last week we have seen two sunny spring-like days which hit the 40s and 50s followed by a snowstorm that dropped about a foot of snow on us. As we have often heard, if you don't like the weather, wait a minute.

While you are waiting, don't forget to stock up on some interesting new reading material. Some of it, like Gardening for Geeks or Nature's Best Hope, will help you to be ready to spring into action when the weather finally does warm up enough to plant. Other new books are pure escapism for those days when it seems like winter will never lose its grip on the Rangeley region. This month's order features some of our library's long-time favorites like the newest Joe Pickett novel by C.J. Box and the latest book in the Numa Files series written by Clive Cussler who just passed away last week at the age of 88. We also have some new authors to try out like first-time author Alka Joshi or Rachel Dylan who, while not new to writing, may be new to Rangeley Library patrons.

Our DVD collection is also growing each month. People are often surprised to find that we have a significant collection of movies that can be borrowed at no charge (like all library materials!). The kids may be excited to see the new Frozen II movie later in March, and I know I am interested in checking out PBS's historical Jamestown series set in 1600s Virginia. If it is as good as it looks, it will be the next series to binge watch in the Wilson household!

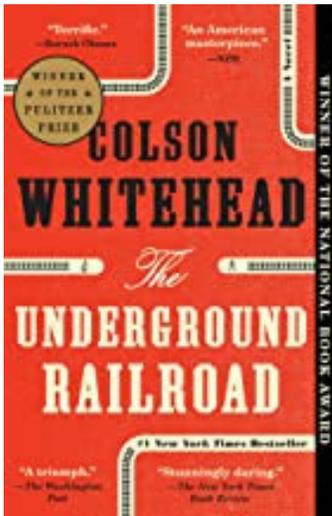

Happy St. Patrick's Day,

Janet Wilson, Director
