

RANGELEY PUBLIC LIBRARY

April 2021 Newsletter

Dear Scott,

April 1st is here and we are getting our usual April Fools' Day joke: snow! That's okay - I was beginning to think I wasn't in Rangeley any more with the bare lawns in March.

I am beginning to see signs that Rangeley is getting ready to open up. Yesterday, a member of Rangeley Friends of the Arts came in with a flyer looking for people wanting to be on a production crew for a summer show. One of our regular library volunteers who has not volunteered since the pandemic began, has announced that she is ready to help out again, now that she is vaccinated, and I have found a few people willing to tentatively plan in-person programming for the summer.

It is so exciting to plan for some of our regular summer activities. At this point in time, we are planning to have our annual Book & Bake Sale on the second Saturday in July, something we were not able to do last year. It will be an extra special sale this year, with two year's worth of books waiting in the basement! You won't want to miss this one!

But, I get ahead of myself! Come visit us now, in the month of April, and check out some books, movies, magazines, and more! Or just say "hello", and let us know how you are doing. We will be here waiting for you!

Sincerely,

Janet Wilson, Director
director@rangeleylibrary.org
