

RANGELEY PUBLIC LIBRARY

October 2024 Newsletter

Dear Library Patron,

Happy Fall! I have mourned the end of summer long enough! Time to enjoy another awe-inspiring season. Rangeley is currently a spectacular palette of autumn colors. Every day, the scenery changes. If you are not in Rangeley now, you really should make time to stop by for at least a few days before all the magnificent leaves drop. And, of course, you have to stop by the library for a great book to read on these cool autumn evenings.

As you can see below, October brings new books by favorite authors such as Jeffrey Archer, Ann Cleeves, Michael Connelly, Lee Child, and others. Along with our "go to" authors, there are several new (to us!) authors that are worth a look. Jungeun Yun's magical realism book, Marigold Mind Laundry, was a huge hit in Korea, and has just been translated into English. Or try out Freida McFadden's newest suspense novel, The Boyfriend. While this is Rangeley Public Library's first McFadden book, her previous books such as The Housemaid series have been keeping lovers of psychological suspense on the edge of their seats for a while now. Whatever your favorite genre, you are sure to find something interesting to read at the Rangeley Public Library. And if you don't find quite what you are looking for here, we can request something from other Maine libraries and generally have them ready for you in just a week or two. Let us know if you need help locating that next great read!

Hope to see you soon!

PROGRAMS

Write ME Epistolary Poetry Workshop with Sidney Wade

Saturday October 19
10:30 - 1:30

As part of the Write ME project, poet Sidney Wade will lead a free epistolary poetry workshop. Wade notes, "This workshop will be a hands-on three hour program in which we study some examples of epistolary poetry and then begin some new drafts of our own, offering generous and thoughtful criticism to each author."

Sidney Wade taught poetry and translation in the Creative Writing Program at the University of Florida for 21 years. She has published 8 collections of poetry, the latest of which is Deep Gossip: New and Selected Poems, from Johns Hopkins University Press. She lives in Rangeley and Gainesville, Florida.

OWL Club

Meets on Thursdays at 2:45

Our Weekly Library Club is for children in kindergarten through second grade. It meets every Thursday when school is in session right after school for fun adventures, stories, games, crafts, snacks, and more.

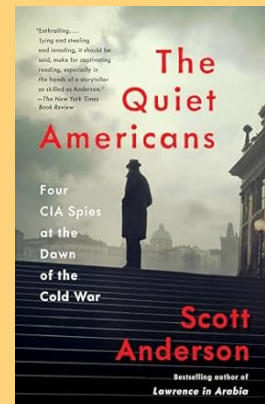

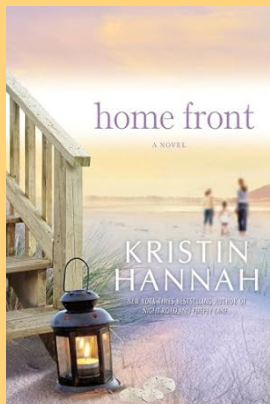

Preschool Story Hour Meets Fridays at 10:00 AM

Story hour includes stories, crafts, and other fun activities. It meets every week when school is in session.

October Book Discussions
